SAYS GOD WANTS MEN TO PREPARE AS WELL AS PREACH.

(By A. N. P.) Giddings, Texas, Dec. 23.—"If God called a man to preach in this age, he also called him to prepare," declared Bishop William Braker Johnson of Plains, Ga., in addressing the ministers of the West Texas Methodist Episcopal Conference, "for in this age where the public schools, private schools and colleges are turning out so many God can't use an ignorant man. You do not study you will find yourself without a pupil for the people are asking that certain men not be sent back to them because of their extra stock of ignorance and illiteracy."

"Too many preachers sit around street corners in barber shops talking politics and telling lies," continued the bishop, "when they should be at home studying. If you do your duty you will not have to stir up strife."
